

How To Manage An OSHA Visit To Your Job Site

The Contractor Coaching Partnership

THE CONTRACTOR COACHING PARTNERSHIP AND SAFETY TRAINERS INVITE RESIDENTIAL CONTRACTORS, BUILDERS AND TRADES TO LEARN HOW TO MANAGE A JOB SITE VISIT FROM AN OSHA ENFORCEMENT OFFICER .

Seminar Dates and Locations

10/28/2011 Andover
(morning) 9-11:00 AM
10/28/2011 Auburn, Ma
(afternoon) 2-4:00 PM

11/10/2011 Auburn, Ma.
2-4:00 PM
11/15/2011 Andover, Ma.
2-4:00 PM
11/29/2011 Plymouth, Ma.
2-4:00 PM
12/1/2011 Fall River, Ma.
2-4:00 PM
12/9/2011 Hyannis, Ma.
2-4:00 PM

Registration Fee $55.00

Pre-Registration is Required

TO REGISTER CLICK
HERE

Or call

978-422-6354 or 508-847-0162

Email;

mark@thecontractorcoachingpartnership.com

Other Trainings

OSHA Fall Protection Training

EPA/Mass RRP Training

Presented by Safety Trainers, Inc and
The Contractor Coaching Partnership, Inc.

In this seminar you will learn;

- What to expect from OSHA
- Types of Inspections
- Your rights when OSHA visits your job site
- Should you request a warrant and credentials from the officer
- What documentation and formal records you need on the job
- How to prepare your employees and subs if OSHA stops by your job
- How to address hazards and violations found on the job by OSHA
- What to say and not say
- Documenting the OSHA inspectors visit
- The role of the compliance officer during an OSHA visit
- Consulting with an attorney or safety company
- What follows an OSHA citation

Who should attend this seminar;

Owners and Managers of Residential Construction Companies

Remodelers, Builders, Developers, General Contractors

Roofing, Siding, Window, Gutters, Insulation and Painting Contractors

Electricians, Plumbers, HVAC

Property Management, Maintenance and Handyman Companies

Specialty Trades & companies who work in the residential construction industry.